The nine years since the first edition of The Buddhist Path to Awakening was published have seen the publication of many articles and books in the field of Buddhist studies. Not a few of these have some bearing on the general topic of the present study, namely the theory of early Buddhist 'meditation' and the stages of the Buddhist spiritual path. However, to my knowledge there has been no ...

Library of Heaven's Path is an excellent story that's near the top of its genre - face-slapping. Its plot is really well written and even though you kind of know what is going to happen, but you can't help but anticipate what's going to happen next. The MC is thick-skinned, arrogant sometimes even, but I think there's a certain charm to smug protagonist as long as they don't push it too far ...
